Planning Group For Supervision Of Sub-Divisions

Commission Favors Early Contact With Developers as Mutually Beneficial

MAKES ANNUAL REPORT

"Land sub-division is one of the most important elements of town planning and it will continue to receive the close attention of the Planning Commission."

Thus it was indicated in the annual report of the Lower Merion Planning Commission made by Walter D. Fuller, Penn Valley, chairman, to the Township Board of Commissioners, that a strict supervision of building in Lower Merion would be carried on.

"The Planning Commission," the report continues, "has studied each development and reported to you its recommendations. The Commission believes that this early contact with the developers has been beneficial to the developers and township alike."

Also noted were the acquisition during the year of additional playground acreage by the township and the distribution of 850 copies of the booklet—four years in compilation—"A Plan for Lower Merion Township."

With reference to the Mill Creek Valley conservation, the commission will continue its efforts to preserve the natural beauties of this section.

A recent plan to bind residents of the valley to a conservation agreement did not go into effect due to a lack of the necessary number of signatures, but the commission's report states that it "will keep this matter before us until some satisfactory solution is reached."

Players Tonight

and Saturday Will Present "Three Cornered Moon"

"Tonight's the Night" and "The Play's the Thing" and with that in mind, a good attendance is expected at the Players' production tonight and tomorrow night at Elm Hall, Narberth, of Gertrude Tonkonogy's famous comedy "Three Cornered Moon." The play pokes fun at depressions and recessions and proves that after all the world is a mighty fine place to live in.

Rehearsals of this play indicate one of the best performances of the year and really places the Players group beyond the amateur class.

At the Players' monthly meeting Tuesday the 8th, the Players are pleased to present as guest speaker, Charles Morgan, director of the Mask and Wig plays of Pennsylvania and the Triangle Plays of Princeton. His subject will be "The Amateur in the Theater of Today." He brings with him Arnold Boch, expert in make-up, who will demonstrate his art with an interesting lecture.

As this meeting will be of interest also to other groups in the community, who are interested in theater work, they are invited to attend upon payment of the usual 25 cent guest fee to help defray expenses. As usual, the meeting will be followed with refreshments and a social hour.

In Play This Week-End

MISS BETTY LYNCH

of Bryn Mawr avenue, Penn Valley, who plays a prominent part in "Three Cornered Moon" tonight and tomorrow at Elm Hall, Narberth. It's the Narberth Players' 29th production.

Spokeswoman

of Dudley avenue, Narberth, who won radio renown Wednesday as the "beauteous blonde beautician" who stirred a Washington Committee meeting of the nation's small business people, with a pep talk. She is vice-president of the American Cosmeticians Association, treasurer of the local guild, and secretary of the Pennsylvania Beauty Congress.

Child Study

Group of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association will conduct a discussion period led by Mrs. Marian Paul, director of the Extension Department of the Institute of the Pennsylvania Hospital, at its February meeting Wednesday in the American Legion Room of the Community Building.

Mrs. Paul is also Director of the Institutes Nursery School, and is a former principal of the Franklin School. She is well known as a lecturer and a consultant in parent-child relationships.

All parents and other interested persons are cordially invited to come and present questions to Mrs. Paul, either in writing or from the floor.

The interest in the Child Study Group meetings has been most gratifying, with never less than fifty and sometimes as many as eighty in attendance.

The Narberth Parent-Teacher Association is making a very definite contribution to the community in providing these opportunities for parents to receive the expert counsel of those who devote their lives to the guidance of youth.

Army's Hold

on the imagination of Japan's masses was described by a returned clergyman at Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. The speaker was Frank Moss, Jr., of Bala, who is St. Asaph's Church's contribution to the Orient. He came home recently after teaching three years at Tokyo University and serving in the Episcopalean Church's mission field elsewhere in Japan.

The Japanese, like any humans, he said, are swayed by emotions, history and economics, in their struggle for supremacy in China. The military play on the masses' Emperor-worship. . . . World trade conditions make China a desirable market. . . . The Army saved the nation four times, from corruption and effeteness, restoring order and justice, stalling off foreign invasions ever since Kubla Khan tried. . . . And now Japan, engaged in its first military adventure of major magnitude, is attempting to force a Monroe Doctrine of its own on the Orient, freezing out trade of the Occident with the white nations' own modern weapons—American methods of education and mass production, German army efficiency, and English naval tactics. These methods would not have been learned had not Perry opened the door. . . . Whether Japan is biting off more of China than it can chew, remains to be seen. . . .

Vice-President Dr. Raymon Staley presided.

Twin Daughters Are Born on Grandmother's Birthday

February 1 is more than just an anniversary in the Cotter family.

It's now a triple occasion.

For on Tuesday twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cotter, of 401 Essex avenue, and that day also marked the birthday anniversary of the girls' grandmother, Mrs. Howard Cotter, Sr., of 222 Sabine avenue, Narberth.

Six Main Liners Participated in Exciting Session

of a Thousand Small-Business Representatives in Washington Wednesday.

& VENTED THEIR VIEWS

From Ardmore: Roland W. Hill, president of the town's Retail Merchants' Association; Miss Fannie Hawkins, printer, and Miss Alicia Marshall, yarn shop proprietress.

Merion Park: Nelson M. Vandegrift, president of the Sheip and Vandegrift Steel and Lumber Manufacturing Company.

Narberth: Ralph S. Dunne, president of the Narberth Coal Company and of the Business Council, and Mrs. Suzanne Joret Gill, beautician, who won radio renown for herself and her town by giving a spirited pep talk that was commented on favorably that evening by Lowell Thomas.

The Ardmore group went to suggest creating lending agencies to help small business financing; limitation of chain stores and of mass buying at low prices; relief from excessive governmental red tape such as in connection with tax reports and social security.

Mr. Vandegrift: A single tax levied by the government, benefits to go to states and communities; also a nation-wide unity in labor laws.

Mr. Dunne advocated a definite governmental plan to aid small business associations, and a change in the mental attitude of business people, as means of changing Recession to Progression.

He contended the Department of Commerce should initiate a broad program of education, establishing business and professional men and women of Narberth and vicinity are now members of the Narberth Business Council—a 130% increase over the membership of 44 with which Ralph S. Dunne assumed the presidency a month ago. His membership campaign will reach fruition when a business directory containing listings of all interested business and professional people will be published, and distributed to every home in the Eastern Main Line.

The Business Council membership, still growing, includes the following:

Adelizzi Brothers, American Stores, A. & P. Stores, Arcadia Restaurant, Autocar Company, William Bailey, Bell Telephone, Carroll Brothers, Edward A. Carroll and Co., Clark & Milton, Arthur L. Cooke, Cotter's Market, Dan's Barber Shop, Davis Store, Durbin and Howard, Tom Elwood—OUR TOWN, Essex Kandy Kounter, E. C. have been chosen for membership (limited to 22 girls) in the Wilson College Vesper Choir; Olive Bates, daughter of Mrs. Clifford W. Bates, 403 North Narberth avenue, and Elizabeth Nold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard Nold, 100 Wynnedale road. Miss Bates is a senior at Wilson, and Miss Nold a freshman.

Does Milk Label

mean anything? Narberth's Health Board asked this question

Tuesday night at its February meeting in Elm Hall following reports that Dr. George W. Grim, milk control officer for this District No. 1, had failed to prosecute two milk companies alleged to have mislabeled their milk.

Daniel Leitch, board president, also asked how the public was to know if milk labeled for a certain day might not be two or more days old at that time.

In reply to a query by George B. Suplee, secretary of the board, Wednesday morning, Dr. Grim said, first, that the milk companies were not punished because it was their first offense, and, second, that, in addition to frequent checkups made by his office, milk over 36 hours old could not be pasteurized and retain its freshness.

Dr. David Wilbur Horn, Bryn Mawr, was reappointed to do the analysis work for the board during 1938.

During January, Mr. Suplee reported, seven food handler permits and one plumbing registration permit were issued.

There were 18 cases of contagious disease: Mumps, 6; chicken pox, 8;

Women's Club

Calendar Lists Varied Entertainment During February

Announcements made by committee chairmen at the meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth Tuesday afternoon promise varied entertainment for club members in the next few weeks.

The Rev. Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Baptist Church in Narberth, will address the group on Literature and International Relations Tuesday at 1.30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. William Livingston, 502 Essex avenue. Dessert luncheon will be served and co-hostesses will be Mrs. J. S. Harris and Mrs. J. F. Sherron. Rev. Keighton's subject will be "Reading for Profit and Pleasure."

The Art department is sponsoring a trip to the winter show at the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia next Friday. Cars will start at 10 A. M. from the south side of Narberth Station and visitors will be taken to the home of Mrs. G. B. Suplee, Art chairman, for coffee and sandwiches following the trip. Those wishing to go are to call Mrs. Suplee.

Ancestral Treasures Vie At Club Hobby Show With Foreign Curios

One hundred and sixty-five members of the Women's Community Club of Narberth held much more than a Hobby Show Tuesday afternoon in the Legion wing of the Community Building. Rare and interesting collections from all parts of the world were there and beautiful modern hand-work. But in probably no part of the country but the Philadelphia area could such a wealth of family treasures, handed down through generations, be found in one club. Little cards on the exhibits giving the personal history of each one made the show the success it was.

Dr. Walter Obold, Professor of Biological Sciences at Drexel Institute, explained how the Pure Food Laws were trying to combat the eight most common frauds practiced by food producers. He explained how 75,000 tons of canned food spoiled in floods had been relabelled and sold, and how the traffic in it was stopped in Pennsylvania. He urged this community to pass an ordinance demanding that all meat be government inspected.

Oldest in the Hobby Show exhibit were a stoneware oven owned by Mrs. J. H. Miller and a brass candlestick belonging to Mrs. G. B. Suplee, both over 200 years old. Among the treasures over 100 years old were: a petit point fire screen made in a convent in France in 1829 by an ancestor of Mrs. J. S. Ketcham, the present

County Sportsmen

Elect Narberth Man President and Review Conservation Work

JOHN A. MILLER

John Miller, Narberth deputy fire chief, was elected last week president of the Montgomery County Sportsmen's Federation, at a meeting in Norristown. With three thousand members, the Federation has done a great work in extending the territory in this county, that is available for fishing and hunting, and in stocking streams with 34 truckloads of fish, and raising and liberating game. The Federation's nursery at Graterford now contains 3,600 square feet of bed space planted with tree seedlings.

Lower Merion's Rod and Gun Club is one of the largest of the 30 in the county, with 130 members. Mr. Miller has been president of it for two two-year terms.

Delegates with him at the convention last week were Charles Chain, current president of the local club, Paul H. Miller, Henry J. Moller, Joseph P. White and George Purring.

Juniors Announce

Annual Reciprocity Meeting Thursday, February 10th

Fourteen presidents from other Montgomery County Junior Clubs, as well as two other representatives from each club have been invited by the Narberth Junior Woman's Club. It is an "open" meeting and all those interested are urged to attend. There is no guest fee for an open meeting.

A diverting evening's entertainment has been planned by the Music Committee, the committee in charge. One of the features will be Mary Shinohara, Japanese dancer of unusual ability. She will bring her own backdrops and "atmosphere," which, together with her costumes, will transport us to the "Land of the Cherry Blossoms" (providing we leave the prejudices at home)! There will be a Marionette Show, put on by the Philadelphia Dairy Council. And last, but by no means least, Narberth's very own Double Male Quartette (or should it be Male Double-Quartette?) will sing two groups of numbers including "Tramp! Tramp!" from Naughty Marietta, "Jack Peel," "Morning" by Speaker, and "Kentucky Babe." The Double Quartette includes such well-known Narberth citizens as Messrs. Henry Frye, C. M. Tapp, speaking before the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association on Monday evening, gave an interesting resume on current political events, and the policies of the present administration at Washington.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Gibson Bell and the Salute to the Flag by Scout Peggy Burns, Troop 8.

A course of instruction for members of the Parent-Teacher Association in order that they may become officers and committee heads is being given every Tuesday morning at 10.30 in the American Legion Room of the Community Building under the direction of Mrs. W. G. Briner. This course is planned by the National Parent-Teacher Association. There will be three or four more lectures in this course. The next one will be next Tuesday and then two or three consecutive Tuesdays thereafter. All members are urged to attend.

The Budget and Finance Committee, Mrs. H. F. Darnes, chairman, would again like to remind readers to keep February 17 for the Sauer Krout Dinner to help raise funds for the organization. The dinner will be served from 5.30 until 7.30 in the Narberth School Cafeteria. Besides the Sauer Krout there will be other delicious things to eat.

County Republicans Organize With New Campaign Heads

Office Holders, Sectional Leaders and Young Republicans Appointed

ANNOUNCED BY WRIGHT

A newly-formed Republican Executive Committee for Montgomery County, appointed by Franklin L. Wright, chairman of the Republican County Committee, was announced this past week.

In selecting members of this committee, which is expected to effect party harmony, Wright named all the courthouse officeholders and selected an additional member for each 5000 Republican registration in the five legislative districts of the county.

Two young Republicans will have a place on the committee. They are John A. McGarvey, Jr., of Lower Merion Township, and John E. Marshall, of Cheltenham Township.

Representatives from the first legislative district of which Lower Merion and Narberth are a part include the following: Fred C. Peters, president of the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners; District Attorney Frederick B. Smillie; Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion treasurer and tax collector and Republican leader for the township; and Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., president of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women.

From the second district, County Treasurer R. Ronald Dettre, Miss Nancy P. Highley and Coroner Winslow J. Rushong, all of Norristown; and former Assemblyman E. Arnold Forrest, of Conshohocken, are named.

Firemen Elected

Officers of Relief and Active Groups last Friday at annual meetings held at the Narberth Firehouse on Forrest avenue.

Both sessions bore testimony to the reverence in which borough volunteers held the memory of their late chief, Charles V. Noel.

Harry Hollar presided as chairman at the meeting of the Relief Association whose president had been Chief Noel, and officers elected were:

President, Albert Nulty; vice-president, Vincent Cunningham; and re-elected were Secretary Thomas Merkel and Treasurer John A. Miller.

The association looks after the welfare of active members who are ill or injured.

Thirty-one members of the 40 in the Active Members' Club turned out for the session presided over by Harry Hollar, president.

Prior to the election it was unanimously decided to preserve the fire fighting equipment of the late Chief Noel in a glass case in the fire house. A picture of the chief, given by Mrs. Noel, was hung and a copy of the Memorial Resolution received.

Plans were also started to erect a memorial tablet to the man who led them for over a quarter of a century and President Hollar named Vincent Cunningham to head a committee for this purpose consisting of Thomas Merkel, Guy Mosteller, Morris Lacey and John A. Miller. Horace Returns must be filed shortly. Assistance in preparing them will be given, at no charge, by a Revenuer, February 18 and 21, at the National Bank of Narberth. Hours, 9 to 3. If your gross income is $5,000; or if you earned over $1,000 last year, wifeless; or $2,500, married, you will need to report, regardless of exemptions.

Voters May Register Locally Next Month

Registrars to Enroll Lower Merion-Narberth Electors on Six Days

Registrars from the office of the Montgomery County Registration Commission will enroll Lower Merion and Narberth voters, who have not previously registered under the Permanent Registration Law, during six days in March.

They will sit at the Township Building, Ardmore, from 2:30 to 5 P. M. and from 6 to 8:30 P. M. on March 21, 22, 29, 30 and 31, and at the Borough Hall, Narberth, on March 23, according to the commission's members, Foster C. Hillegass, James W. Potter and Fred C. Peters.

Correction to the Commission's original listing, which did not mention the Narberth date, was made by W. D. R. Evans, Narberth Republican Committeeman.

The main registration office in the Court House at Norristown also will continue to be open daily from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. (except Saturdays until noon) for registration of voters until April 16, the last day to register for the Primary Election.

congregation that satisfactorily filled the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Narberth, witnessed the Karl Emerson Williams Players' performance of "Peter—the Rock," last Sunday evening. And liked it . . . for its beautiful simplicity, its adherence to grave (St. James' version) speech, its bringing out of the human and little-known mannerisms and background of Peter, Mary Magdaline, and his wife's mother. The players, and especially Elwin Marshall, who played the disciple, showed expert timing and understanding of the nuances of presentation that befit stock company players. Striking point of the performance was the reverent emotion which the players shared with audience.

Homes are inclined to save on water because of the labor and time involved in handling it, and the desire to minimize the meter reading.

¡CARAMBA!
SAID THE GENERAL

Central American bandits recently had good reason to gnash their strong white molars. The cause was a new use found for old telephone directories.

It seems that certain railroad cars, although built of double steel plates, were proving vulnerable to bullets from the high-powered rifles of the caballeros of the plains. But someone discovered that when telephone books were placed between the plates, the death-dealing slugs stopped among the Smiths and Joneses causing a heavy loss in names but not in lives.

¡Caramba! said the bandit chief as railroad officials made use of more than two tons of telephone books.

Your telephone directory will probably never save a life, but it can save time and trouble every day. The Classified Business Section is a real step and time saver when you're looking for something. And once you've found the product or service you want, you can save more steps and more time by using your telephone to transact the business. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

THE FIRESIDE

Miss Edith Ann Lingel and Miss Jean Brenneman, of Lancaster, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stahl, of Essex avenue.

Mrs. Walter R. O'Sullivan, of Windsor avenue, gave a small luncheon and bridge Tuesday. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Martin, of Chatham Village; Mrs. Norman Cochrane, of Germantown, and Mrs. Raymond Schofield, of Burholme, Pa.

Miss Agnes Rose, of Linden, N. J., will spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Henry Rose, of Woodside avenue.

Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton, of Chestnut avenue, entertained at luncheon and bridge on Wednesday for sixteen guests.

Mrs. William Levis, of Hampden avenue, spent several days last week in New York.

Ethel Romig Fuller, of Portland, Oregon, who was the guest last week of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Pearson, of the Lakeview Apartments, is a poet well known for her verses, "Kitchen Sonnets," in which she glorifies the affairs of everyday living. Another of her works is "White Peaks and Green," in which she pictures the beauties of the Northwest. She also has had verses published in several of the well-known magazines. Dr. and Mrs. Pearson entertained at a buffet supper in her honor Sunday night.

Mrs. Joseph R. Clausen, of Meeting House lane, has returned from a three weeks' stay in Florida.

Miss Myrtle Schlipf, of Merwyn road, entertained her club at bridge Tuesday evening. Mrs. Schlipf is recovering nicely from a broken ankle.

OUR TOWN

A Co-operative Community Newspaper founded in 1911 by the Narberth Civic Association, and published every Friday at Narberth, Pa.

Thomas A. Elwood, Editor & Publisher
Anne Morgan Roberts, Social Editor

Office — 209 Haverford Ave., Narberth

Telephone: Narberth 4100

Entered as second-class matter October 13, 1911, at the Post Office at Narberth, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879

Friday, February 4, 1938

in Narberth has a new lease on life, now that it's a tool shed no longer—or shall we say, a tool shed longer. Originally considered a dog house or phone booth station, it was enlarged to resemble a bowling alley, and now renders much more satisfactory service, thanks to its length, benches and radiators. It is larger than Ardmore's 2 x 4 station. Ardmore's business folk are bestirring themselves and, let's hope, the Pennsylvania Railroad to gain a larger station and more adequate parking space near it. The ticket sales at Ardmore, though not so great as Narberth's in number, are considerable, and can be increased or diminished, according to the treatment the railroad gives the public.

The Merion Civic Association prompts its members to buy tickets at the Merion Station, rather than Broad street. This is done because the railroad grades its stations according to their ticket sales and the grade of service the number of employees the appearance of a station greatly affect the residential value of a fine community such as Merion or Ardmore or Narberth.

Perhaps one reason Merion is encouraged to keep its station is that they have a garden with no obsolete station agent tracks tearing [illegible] abandoned disgrace.

Narberth is trying to [illegible] the railroad to improve its station eyesore. The P. R. R. has built Narberth a New Deal [illegible] nearly brand new pole and a [illegible] ten-spot from an old clock.

Narberth Borough Council [illegible] February the 14th. A recommendation of a Borough Planning Commission is due.

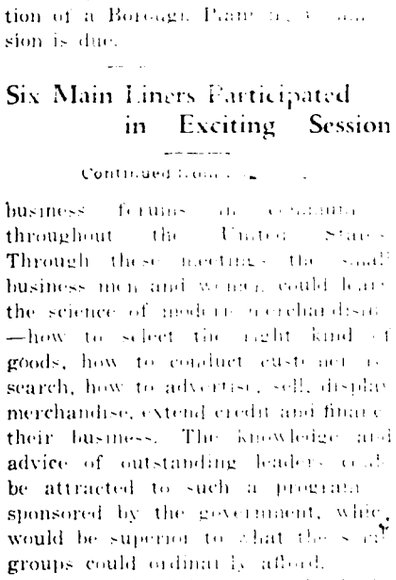
business forums [illegible] throughout the United States. Through these meetings the small business men and women could learn the science of modern merchandising—how to select the right kind of goods, how to conduct customer research, how to advertise, sell, display merchandise, extend credit and finance their business. The knowledge and advice of outstanding leaders could be attracted to such a program sponsored by the government, which would be superior to what the small groups could ordinarily afford.

"Distribution," he said, "should be made as efficient as modern production has become."

As for the viewpoint of the small business man and woman, Mr. Dunne suggested miracles can be wrought individually and throughout the nation by skipping "fear" stories in the newspapers, and concentrating instead on sporting news and comic strips. "Too many of us," he said, "spend our time bewailing high taxes and excessive regulation, instead of relying on Yankee initiative—on old-time pioneering hustle."



Mr. Dunne, who heads the Narberth Business Council, is former president of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, has for years been active in the Poor Richard Club, and has lectured at Haverford College and other schools and colleges on his pet subject—improving business—individual business.

In the Mailbag

Editor, OUR TOWN:

The statement in the account of our annual report which reads "There are 564 adult members registered, and 185 juveniles" is a bit misleading. Those figures represent only one year's registration. The active registration list at present is approximately 2500.

Very truly yours,
CLARA E. FOLLETTE,
Librarian.

Eighth Graders Give Original Play. Last Hour Students

The girls' basketball game was played on January 27. The "Grays" were defeated by the "Reds," with a score of 7-0. Good sportsmanship was shown on both teams.

The boys' first team defeated Friends' Central, on January 26, 15-8. Points for Narberth were made by Greer, Heindel and Frank Mariana.

The boys' intramural teams played January 31, when Hayward's won over Heath's, 14-1, and Narrigan beat Miller, 10-4.

In these games, each team plays four quarters of five minutes each.

ELEANOR HAYWOOD,
Student Reporter.

The assembly program on January 21 was under the direction of Mr. Knoll. A number of girls and boys from the Eighth grade gave an original play called "Pennsylvania on Trial."

Six boys were the jury, one was judge, one was district attorney, and one swore the witnesses in. Each gave a short account of the history of Pennsylvania, mineral wealth, education, etc. At the end of the trial the jury found the defendants not guilty. (Editor's note: Of what?)

After that Mr. Drennen read the honor roll for the second period and gave out awards.

The roll:

First Honors:

Eighth grade: *Peggy Aul, *Eleanor Hayward.

Seventh grade: Fred Kuebler, *Warren Vincent, Mary Olive Bates, *Virginia Durbin and Lois Schenck.

Sixth grade: *Dick Whiting, *Kenneth Wilson, *Barbara Bailey, *Claire DeHart, *Joan Pearson, *Barbara Woodrow, Madeleine Mossman.

Second Honors:

Eighth grade: *Richard Bossone, Allen Doty, *Victor Heath, *Harry Middleton, James Pruitt, *Robert Wells, *Edna Andrew, *Suzanne Autin, Alice Mae Cook, *Betty Hollar, Katrina Hoyt, *Betty Schellentrager, *Barbara Smedley, *Elaine Starr, Mary Stemkomph and *Kathryn Uhle.

Seventh grade: George Bailey, Thomas Butler, James Hutton, Robert Miller, Ned Moxon, Robert Phillips, Gloria Cavitello, *Mary Wade Colbert, *Marjorie Enz, *Dorothy Hatton, Carol Schroder and Eleanor Stam.

Sixth grade: Harvey Austin, Herard Biddle, *Dick Pruitt, Robert Tripician, Shirley Bailey, Perry Burns, *Eleanor Klapper, *Loretta Lillis, Marilyn Mitchell, *Jean Sargent and *Peggy Sparks.

*Received scholarship awards for being on Honor Roll both quarters.

Widow Seeks $25,000 Damages

Mrs. Bessie Getz, 2016 Pratt street, Philadelphia, has entered suit for $25,000 damages because of the death of her husband, Harry, who died as the result of an accident November 12 opposite the 1200 block of Montgomery avenue, Narberth.

Defendants are John A. Higgins, owner of the car which struck Getz while he was pushing his truck after it had run out of gas, and William John Casey, alleged driver of the Higgins' machine. Both live in Elkins Park.

Save money and time by reading the ads and shopping wisely and well in your neighborly marts.

McElwee Replaced as Secretary of Montg. County Democrats

A shake-up in the Democratic ranks of Montgomery County was revealed this week with the appointment of John H. Morlock as executive secretary of the Democratic County Committee.

He replaces Joseph F. McElwee, who was regarded as having done an excellent job with the material at hand. Morlock is secretary of the State Senate and Matthew McCloskey's first lieutenant.

McCloskey, who made the change, has taken under his personal supervision the eastern section of Pennsylvania and will direct the destinies of democracy in Philadelphia, Montgomery, Delaware, Chester and Bucks Counties in the Gubernatorial fight this year.

Residents of Our Town
—attention, please:
Here is an unusual opportunity: An outstanding corner residence property prominently and conveniently located on a splendid lot 75 x 100. True, the house needs renovizing, but the bargain price of $5,000 takes that fully into account, and in our opinion the property offers exceptional prospects for a substantial increase in value over the next few years.

owner; a copper tea pot owned by Mrs. J. H. Eidson; a copper kettle, by Mrs. Eberhardt Muller; a foot stool hand carved in France, owned by Mrs. P. A. Wales, with a needlepoint cover made by her daughter, Muriel, a bride's towel made in 1824, owned by Mrs. P. H. Marrow, and a silver fruit bowl, by Mrs. Snyder.

Quaintest were: a collection of dolls from all nations owned by Nancy Nash, daughter of Mrs. Robert J. Nash; many figures carved of wood and ivory, on the Oriental table; a Tapa, or large piece of cloth, made in one of the Figi Islands and presented to Mrs. Joseph Garbarg by the chief of that island, and a Matabella knife given her by a chief in Rhodesia.

Of the fifteen pieced quilts which decorated the sides of the room, the most interesting was one handed down in the family of Mrs. Lindley Trotter. It was made in 1850 and family names are placed in cross stitch in the center of each circle. One of the loveliest of the modern quilts was one in rainbow colors made for Mrs. W. R. Giles' daughter by the child's grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Giles. One of the most intricate of the five hand crocheted bed spreads was made by Mrs. William Muller and Mrs. J. A. Hongler displayed a beautiful banquet cloth three yards long, made by her in a Florentine pattern.

Most interesting, too, was a set of silver given as a wedding present in 1867 to the grandmother of Mrs. William Levis and handed down to her.

Mrs. C. E. Starr showed how she makes original books in Braille for the Red Cross by making perforations with a stylus on specially processed oil paper. The work is done backwards so the blind can read the raised dots, and 1000 copies can be made from one original. The volunteer furnishes her own material and is graded on her work. A record was run on the talking book for the blind, owned by the Narberth Junior Club and loaned to worthy blind of the community. The machine, made by Richard Timm, of the Wunder Battery Service has not only a place for records, but has a radio attached with nine principal stations marked by pegs.

Preceding the Hobby Show a covered dish luncheon was served in the Girl Scout wing with Mrs. R. C. Heath and her Hospitality Committee as hostesses. Following the program a clever skit called "A Bored Meeting," written by Mrs. C. A. Farmer, chairman of the show, was given by Mrs. Farmer and her committee. Mrs. G. M. Coholan, associate program chairman, introduced Dr. Obold.

Russel Basker, W. J. Drennan, L. Sarle Brown, L. W. Easby, Thomas Elwood and Owen Schmidt. Because of the nature of the meeting, a large crowd is expected so the Hospitality Committee will act as hostesses. Mrs. T. A. Fischer is the chairman.

Miss Mary Louise Glessner, music chairman, held a committee meeting at her home on Tuesday evening. Members attending were: Miss Esther Clegg, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Miss Kay Patton, Miss Mitzi Clampitt, Miss Patricia Cowie, Miss Mary Speakman and Mrs. J. E. Stanton.

The Executive Board will meet next Monday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Spencer V. Smith.

This week's Blanket Club winner was Mrs. Gertrude Goranflo.

Because of the extremely inclement weather Monday, the start of the annual Contract Bridge Tournament has been postponed to Valentine's Day, February 14. So there is still time for you to sign up. The tournament is being conducted by the Fellowship and Drama Committees. Mrs. F. Munro Purse and Miss Margaret Kent are the chairmen. Call either of them if you want more details. To be held every other Monday afternoon for six times, the fun of playing has the added incentive of very grand prizes. Progressive Contract (not Duplicate) will be played. Come and try your luck, you may finish in the "Big Money!"

whooping cough, 3; pneumonia, 1.

A complaint was received from A. E. Wohlert, 202 Stepney Place, that his drainage pipe was stopped up. Investigation showed that the trouble was within the house line and Robert J. Nash's office, agent for the property, was notified.

Members of the Board present were Mrs. R. C. Hoffman, Mrs. Roy C. Williams, Arthur L. Cooke and Mr. Leitch.

Narcotics

Lecture Earl Albert Rowell was tried by Radnor Magistrate

Howard C. Harbison last week of charges of illegal possession of narcotics and of collecting money under false pretenses. In return he pledged to stop his lecture tour in Pennsylvania (which brought him to the Bala-Cynwyd Garden Club) and to refund ticket money collected for a projected lecture February 7 at Wayne's Saturday Club. Mr. Rowell, who spoke at Lower Merion Junior High School, was investigated by Lower Merion police, who cleared him before he ran afoul the more vigilant Radnor authorities. Freed with him, following his promise, were five men including his son, codefendants on the charge of selling tickets under false pretenses.

High pressure salesmanship methods in connection with the Saturday Club talk, coupled with statements that the club was sponsoring the lecture, first aroused the ire of Wayne citizens. The situation was further aggravated when on January 11, in the course of an address before the Lions Club, which was attended by Officer John P. Kane, of the Radnor police, Rowell illustrated his remarks with narcotic exhibits for the possession of which he could furnish no authorization. His arrest and the arrest of his associates followed on January 13. Prior to that time, he had addressed a number of Main Line service clubs and organizations including high schools and the Lower Merion police.

The local investigation of the case was carried on by Lieutenant James Bones, of the Radnor police, under orders from Captain Wilmer N. Clemence. Co-operating were Dr. John H. Remig and Agent John F. Day, of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, who confiscated the drugs found in Rowell's possession.

Strongly condemning the salesmanship tactics of Rowell's associates, Lieutenant Bones likened the whole affair to a "small time racket." At the same time he recommended dismissal of the charges against the lecturer, who has no police record.

"Our department," he said, "is concerned with prosecuting criminals, but not persecuting anyone."

Witnesses who appeared at Monday's hearing included Mrs. T. Magill Patterson, president of the Saturday Club; Mrs. O. Howard Wolfe, Miner L. Vail, Howard McClintock, Mrs. P. C. Clark, Jonathan Lengel, Dr. Norman A. Wack, and I. Walter Conner, Jr.

Besides Rowell, the defendants were Melvin Locke, alias Davis; Edward B. Hunter, Norman Lynch, William J. Tippett, and Robert E. Rowell.

P. S.—Monday night a lecture scheduled to be given by Mr. Rowell at the Woman's Club Building, Ardmore, was given by his wife and son.

Reading Club Meets Today

The Reading Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. Shepley Evans, S. Highland avenue, Merion, this Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. B. Wells, of Merion, will review "The Citadel," by A. J. Cronin.

Mr. Thomas Cooper, of N. Bowman avenue, sailed from Philadelphia Monday en route to Jacksonville and Miami, Florida.

The Education and Art departments are sponsoring a trip through the Curtis Publishing Company at two o'clock Friday, February 25, according to Mrs. J. A. Hongler, chairman of Education. Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, chairman of Conservation, asks club members to send a protest to Pennsylvania Senators against Bill 2970, believed by Conservation leaders to be detrimental to our natural resources.

Mrs. Henry F. Dever, chairman of the Salvation Army drive in the area under supervision of the club, reports a collection of $338 in Narberth and part of Merion, with a probable total of $400. Main Line workers met for luncheon at the Bellevue-Stratford Thursday.

The Home department held its regular meeting to sew for the Red Cross Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. J. Bruneel.

Mrs. Henry D. Sidler was voted into membership in the club at the last meeting of the Board. By mistake her name was omitted from the list last week.

town; Warren M. Cornell, Hatboro; Register of Wills Haseltine S. Lever, of Abington; Harold C. Pike, of Cheltenham Township, and former Commissioner William D. Ridgeway, comprise the group from the third district.

From the fourth district are Samuel M. Glass, newly-elected Jury Commissioner, from Whitemarsh; Controller William C. Irvin, Stewart Nase, of Lansdale, and I. Norman Zoudt, of Souderton.

Prothonotary Earl B. Bechtel, William J. Boden and Clerk of Courts Paul B. Hunsberger, all of Pottstown; J. Stroud Weber, of Evansburg; and County Commissioner Foster C. Hilegass, of Pennsburg, represent the fifth district.

Firemen Elected

Standley, active member, will make a sketch of a design for the tablet and present it at the next meeting for approval.

Due to Active Members' Club rules, which permit no officer more than two terms in the same post, a new roster of leaders was elected:

President, Vincent F. Cunningham; vice-president, George Carr; secretary, Thomas Casey; treasurer, Earl Dickey.

Officers who have served the last two terms are Mr. Hollar, president; James Smythe, vice-president; George Knapp, secretary; Mr. Noel, treasurer.

A buffet supper followed the meeting.

Five in a Row

Narberth Presbyterian's five made it five straight this week by handing Norwood a 37-31 defeat. High score for the churchmen was made by Bill Furber with 12 points, while Roesler and Wood snared 7 each.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. McClelland, of S. Latches lane, sailed Saturday on a cruise to the West Indies.

Sh-h-h. . . .

Percival Roberts, one of the Main Line's biggest landowners, is believed to be so offended at the court decision permitting Lower Merion to install an incinerator in his bailiwick, that he is abandoning his holdings here. Reports are that he has given notice to his employees, both personal, on the magnificent show place on State road, and also business, at Penshurst Farm, and that he is disposing of his prize cattle. His 600 acres of land, enjoying Lower Merion's low assessments, may, as a result, become open for real estate development . . . Which means great changes eventually in Penn Valley and undoubtedly a substantial increase in assessments on his land, bringing more tax money for the township.

What--another fuel oil truck?

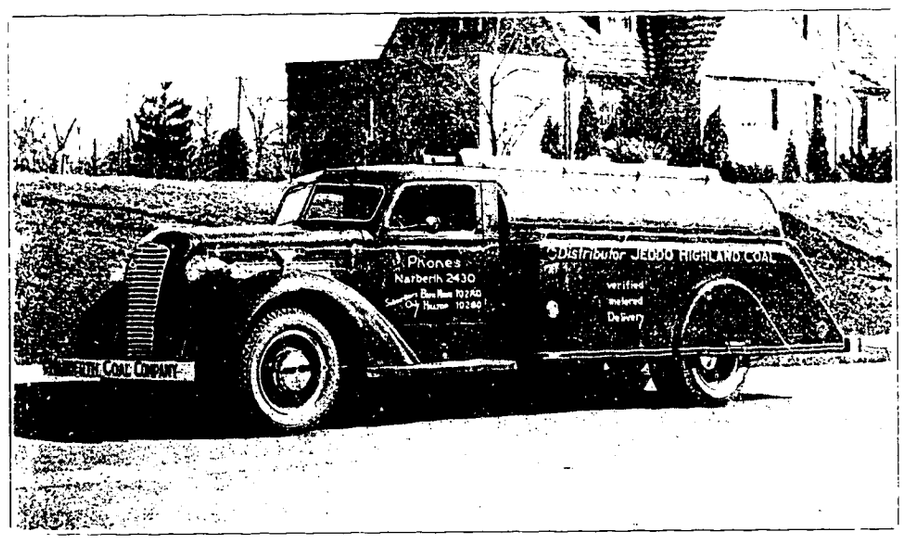
The "Mainliner" newest member of the streamlined fleet to give superlative fuel oil service to Narberth Coal patrons.



Grace, power, utility and beauty combine in this Diamond T unit, supplied to us by Clark & Melia, Inc., of Phila.

Why has THIS fuel oil service made such strides?

As the knowledge gets around, more and more homes with oil heaters are using fuel from our Narberth bulk station tanks, and with good reasons. Our "degree day" service keeps track of YOUR oil level. Your fuel never runs out. You always have a safe margin in reserve.

METER-MEASURED at your home. Every drop passes through the automatic tamper-proof meter, which stamps your ticket at the time delivery is completed. This precision instrument eliminates guesswork and insures that you get ALL you pay for.

Trained drivers are more than courteous—they are careful. In all the years we've sold oil we never had a single complaint of it being spilled on drives, lawns or shrubbery. Every drop goes INSIDE your tank—not outside.

The rapid growth of our fuel oil business justifies our belief that volume follows intelligent, conscientious service; that increasing good will and customer friends are worth more than higher temporary profits and false economies in low-grade delivery methods. Yet with all its superiority you can enjoy this service at no extra cost. Won't you try it?

Around Our Town

How do you like the headlines? A most beauteous South Side reader dislikes them, says the streamlined effect jars on her unaccustomed eyes. Many readers like 'em. And you? . . . They are intended primarily to give readers more words per issue. Instead of repeating all the type in the headline, the "lead" begins in the head and flows into the body of the article . . . an innovation new to this section, but growing in vogue. . . . Your editor believes in giving what you want, so let's have your opinion of stories that appear on this page. One is streamlined; one is conventionalized, repeating headline information in story's lead; and, just for the fun of it, if you are of the school of thought that MUST rely on headlines, here's a complete headline story.

Annual Meeting of the Main Line Federation of Churches will be held as an informal dinner meeting at 7 P. M., next Monday, at the Merion Cricket Club. Reports of the work of the Federation will be given.

The Rev. Rex Stowers Clements pastor of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, is to be the guest speaker. Miss Margaret Adams, well-known monologist, will give several readings in her usual entertaining style.

All interested in the welfare of their neighbors are cordially invited to attend. Reservations may be procured through Mrs. J. Howard Cloud, 11 West Montgomery avenue, Ardmore.

Plans Discussed for Manayunk Bus Line

Proposed Route Would Run Through Penn Valley to Ardmore

Plans for a bus line from West Manayunk to Ardmore were discussed Tuesday with Merritt H. Taylor and H. H. Aikins, president and vice-president of the Aronimink Transportation Co.

A tentative proposal is that the bus line run through Penn Valley, over Bryn Mawr avenue to Montgomery avenue; up Montgomery avenue to Church road; over Church road to Lancaster avenue; along Lancaster avenue to Lehigh avenue and thus to Montgomery avenue, returning by the same route.

Royer Elected Head of Local Health and Civic Association

Frank C. Royer, of Ardmore, was re-elected president of the Community Health and Civic Association at the annual meeting Thursday last, at the Merion Tribute House, Merion.

Other officers of the organization who were rechosen include the Rev. Andrew Mutch, Benjamin Ludlow, Jonathan Steere, Mrs. J. E. Caldwell, Mrs. Gideon Boericke, vice-presidents; Howard Longstreth, secretary; Henry H. Perry, treasurer, and Richard W. Ledwith, solicitor.

Two new directors elected for the ensuing year are William H. McCreary and Markley Stevenson, while the following directors were re-elected:

Miss E. G. Balsley, Robert S. Beal, Dr. Howard Comfort, Mrs. W. T. Dickson, Mrs. Henry C. Earnshaw, E. W. Ehmann, Edward L. Forstall, Dr. F. R. Griffin, Mrs. J. Bennett Hill, William H. Hutt, William P. Landis, W. Logan MacCoy, Miss Blanche E. Meeser, Dr. J. McK. Mitchell, Mrs. H. Wilson Moorehouse, Fred C. Peters, H. Bartol Register, Dr. Joseph Sands, Markley Stevenson, Mrs. Walter B. Supplee, Dr. Caroline Vetkoskey, Samuel Price Wetherill, Mrs. William J. Williamson, Edward Woolman.

The report of the Regional Planning Committee by the chairman, Edward Woolman, commended the recently published plan of the Lower Merion Planning Commission. The changes recommended in regards to revision of the present township zoning laws were approved and the Commissioners will be asked to take action on them.

A marked increase in the tubercular work done by the Association was reported by Dr. Joseph E. Sands, chairman of the Health Committee. Pupils in the Ardmore Avenue, Ashland and the Lower Merion Junior High Schools have been or will be tested for tuberculosis.

A registry for Visiting Practical Nurses and Housekeepers was started this year and a course of training given those who applied.

Miss Blanche E. Meeser, chairman of the Housing and Improvement Committee, announced a Round Table Discussion will be held February 14 to discuss the chapter on Housing in the Lower Merion Township Planning Commission Report. The committee has circulated a petition asking Governor Earle to appoint a Housing Authority for this county and some action is expected soon.

Over 160 members and guests were present.

Time Out

Few basketball games played in the suburbs this winter will eclipse the Lower Merion-Upper Darby fuss played at Ardmore last Friday night. Coach Lew Goas should have piloted a winner in this lone scheduled meeting of the two teams, but the courageous fighting spirit of Bill Anderson's smaller team carried the Maroon and White to a surprising 24 to 20 victory.

The game was an extra-period affair, being tied up at the close of the regulation time 20 to 20. Trailing seven points as the third quarter neared its close, Clarence Griffis and and his distinguished teammates held the towering visitors to three teeny-weeny points in the last ten minutes of play. They went ahead of the Upidahs twenty to nineteen, but the Purple and Gold tied it up with a foul shot just before the game officially closed. Clarence Griffis threw up a beautiful shot from the middle of the floor to score in the first few seconds of the extra period and Bill Hackett slashed in one of his copyrighted one hand survive or perish goals just before the whistle. Hackett thus had the honor and pleasure of being the fire man to score in the game and the last man—both shots being of the same dash and carry style.

The brand of basketball displayed in this classic fuss with Upper Darby was a mixture of all the best styles prevalent in high school circles. Some choice bits of droll officiating added zest to the game, which was rugged enough to stir the heart and smooth and smart enough to intrigue the mind.

One of the best individual contributions during the melee was contributed by Larry Davis, Narberth lad, when he faked his man out of position and dashed in for a field goal that should have won the game in regulation time. The referee, or the umpire, or somebody blew his whistle, however, and decided that Larry's brilliant bit couldn't be allowed because Bill Hook cast his shadow over the foul zone for three and one-tenth seconds and Bill should know that the new rules allow his shadow in that sacred territory for only three seconds. Anyway, and in spite of Upper Darby's man mountain and the jittery condition of the crowd, Coach Anderson's mightly little men romped off with a well deserved verdict.

Lower Merion Junior High School's basketball squad deserve a word of commendation for the fine record they have made to date. Seven suburban league victories and no defeats, with only one defeat in out-of-league competition gives rise to the thought that maybe the lads at the Orange and Black have what it takes.

Tuesday night the Leopards traveled to Pottstown and won a hard-fought victory from the Golden Bears by a score of 24 to 21. It was a rugged ball game, well played, and perhaps Wally Winchell should send the boys a couple of orchids. Today they go to Norristown to meet Stewart Junior High School, and I hope Winchell sends the orchids before then, because the locals will very probably lose their first league game today.

TOMMY MACKLIN.

"The Awful Truth," One of Funniest Films of the Season, Now at Narberth

The only thing awful about "The Awful Truth" playing at Narberth this week-end is that it ends awfully soon. It is so awfully funny that it is a menace to those with short winds and weak stomachs. You can't laugh uproariously for 75 minutes without being able to take it.

Mainly responsible for this situation is madcap Irene Dunne, whose deft clowning tops her Theodora ("Goes Wild") for laughs. So sure and side-splitting are her antics opposite Cary Grant, who is a top-flight funster himself ("Topper"), that the film is undiluted joy, not only to audiences, but to box offices (unquestionably one of the big hit films of the season).

"The Awful Truth" depicts the marital mishaps of the Warriners—with comic complications by Skippy, the wire-haired terrier that as Asta ran riot in "After the Thin Man." Others in the cast include Ralph Bellamy, Alexander D'Arcy, Joyce Compton and Cecil Cunningham.

Saturday matinee in addition to the feature, Joe E. Brown will hold forth in "Circus Clown."

Recalled by popular request, Leopold Stokowski and Deanna Durbin will appear Monday and Tuesday in "100 Men and a Girl."

Wednesday, feature film is "Thief Meets Thief," with special news event at 9 P. M.

Rest of the week, "Nothing Sacred"—with Carole Lombard and Fredric March: another fun-film.

Shirley Temple at Egyptian Matinee

The Main Line Junior Cinema Alliance is presenting Shirley Temple in "Captain January" at the Egyptian Theater, Bala, this Saturday, February 5. The performances are 10.30 A. M. and 2.15 P. M.

The Philadelphia Alumni Association of the University of Washington will hold its annual meeting Saturday evening, February 19, at the home of the president, Alfred L. Baker, McClenaghan's and Mill roads, Wynnewood.

Will Appear in Comedy

Gracie Allen, George Burns and Fred Astaire in "Damsel in Distress" at the Egyptian Monday and Tuesday.

Actress Catches Cold—So They Cast it in Film

To prevent any costly delay in production, one husky throat cold was written into the screen play of "Love and Hisses," twentieth Century-Fox musical-laugh hit, starring Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and Simone Simon, opening Tuesday at the Suburban Theater.

To account for the hoarseness in the voice of Joan Davis, who contracted a heavy cold in the midst of the "shooting," Director Sidney Lanfield had written into the scene a line for Walter Winchell to say to her, "What are you trying to do, imitate Ben Bernie?"

Bert Lhr is also featured in the new hit and the cast includes Dick Baldwin, the Raymond Scott Quintet, Ruth Terry and Douglas Fowley.

"Stand In" With Excellent Cast Plays at the Egyptian Tonight

A chance to take a peek behind the Hollywood scenes — and laugh—is provided by "Stand In" a comedy starring Leslie Howard and Joan Blondell which is playing at the Egyptian this Friday and Saturday.

Sparkling from start to finish with a merrily romantic story, a group of spectacular dances and captivating Gershwin tunes, Fred Astaire, George Burns and Gracie Allen appear in "Damsel in Distress" playing Monday and Tuesday.

Dramatic interludes in the life of a typical American family are highlighted in "You're Only Young Once," which comes to the Egyptian next Wednesday and Thursday, including Thursday matinee, starring Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and Cecilia Parker.

'In Old Chicago' Opens Feb. 10 at Erlanger Theater in Phila.

"In Old Chicago," Darryl F. Zanuck's 20th-Century Fox production, will have its Philadelphia premiere at the Erlanger Theater on Thursday, February 10, at 8.45, and thereafter will be shown at a reserved seat policy with two shows daily, matinees at 2.45, evenings at 8.45 and on Saturdays and Sundays three times, presented at 3, 6 and 9.

The story, based on an original "We the O'Leary's," by Niven Busch, tells the tale of the lives and loves of a mid-west pioneer family, which is depicted with the Chicago fire of 1871 as a dramatic background, co-starring Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche and Alice Brady.

Tickets are now on sale at the Erlanger with seats selling 8 weeks in advance.

Win Penn State Degrees

A Penn Valley girl, Julia C. Markle, Summit road, and a Bala youth, James M. Kyner, 154 Edgehill road, received baccalaureate degrees last Thursday at Pennsylvania State College, Kyner is dairy husbandry, and Miss Markle in home economics.

$5221 for School District

Narberth's school district is listed for a State appropriation of $5221, according to the State Department of Public Instruction.

New Non-Fiction Additions

The following books of non-fiction have recently been added to the shelves of the Narberth Community Library:

"After 1903—What?" by Robert Benchley. Another volume by one of the most popular of American humorists. ($2.50.)

"Augustus," by John Buchan. This biography of the Roman emperor by the Governor-General of Canada, Lord Tweedsmuir, not only deals faithfully with biographical details, but also gives an excellent description of the history of the times.

"Hurricane's Children," by Carl Carmer. Tales from American folklore—about Davy Crockett, Ichabod Paddock, Pecos Bill, John Henry, Johnny Appleseed, Paul Bunyan and others.

"Great Contemporaries," by Winston Churchill. A collection of essays about internationally known figures, including among others: The ex-kaiser, George Bernard Shaw, Lawrence of Arabia, Marshall Foch, Hitler and George V. ($4.00.)

"In the Shadow of Liberty," by Edward Corsi. This is the story of Ellis Island and immigration, told by the man who was placed in charge of the station by President Hoover. Mr. Corsi, himself started his life in America as an immigrant.

"Island of Bali," by Michael Covarrubias. Those who have read Vicki Baum's "Tale of Bali" will find this description of the social life of the Balinese an interesting follow-up book.

"Ladies and Gentlemen in Victorian Fiction," by E. M. Delafield. Miss Delafield's newest is already in demand. It is an account of the social life of Victorian England drawn from passages in the writings of minor Victorian novelists. ($2.50.)

"Transgressor in the Tropics," by Negley Farson, is the author's account of his trip through South America. It deals more with people and incidents than with places and scenery. ($2.50.)

"Doctors on Horseback," by James Thomas Flexner. The biographical accounts of pioneers in American medicine cover such personalities as Benjamin Rush, William Beaumont, Crawford W. Long and William T. G. Morton. ($2.75.)

"Inside Europe," by John Gunther. Revised edition of 1938. ($3.50.)

"The Lady and the Panda," by Ruth Harkness. When the author's husband died, she courageously carried out his plans for a scientific expedition to China. Her account concerns itself mostly with the capture of the baby giant panda, Su-Lin (little bit of something cute) the first one of these rare animals to be brought to this country alive. ($2.50.)

"Corned Beef and Caviar," by Marjorie Hillis—recipes and menus for the live-aloner.

"Andrew Jackson: Portrait of a President," by Marquis James. The first volume of this biography, "Andrew Jackson: Border Captain," is also in the Library.

"Son of Scotland," by Bruce Lockhart. The author of "British Agent" tells of his boyhood in Scotland. ($3.00.)

"Cleopatra," by Emil Ludwig. The author's interest in the Egyptian queen grew when he was gathering material for "The Nile." ($3.50.)

Still No Permit Taken

Despite widespread publicity for several months concerning the proposed 114-apartment building to be erected at Narberth and Price avenues, Narberth, no permit has been taken for erection of the structure, George B. Suplee, borough building superintendent, said Wednesday noon.

Circulate Petitions For Spring Primary Starting Feb. 26th

Candidates for Many Important Offices Will be Selected This Year

PRIMARY IS ON MAY 26

The political teapot of Montgomery County will start boiling on February 26, which is the first day to secure signatures to petitions for nomination to offices which are voted upon at the Spring Primary to be held Tuesday, May 17.

Candidates for the following offices are to be nominated: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary Internal Affairs, United States Senator, Representative in Congress, State Senator, Representatives in General Assembly (Districts 1-2-3-4-5), State Committeemen and Committeewomen, and all County Committeemen and Committeewomen.

All petitions with the exception of those for County Committeemen and Committeewomen must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth at Harrisburg not later than 5 P. M., March 28.

County Committeemen and Committeewomen will file their petitions with the Chief Clerk of the County Board of Elections, Norristown, not later than 4 P. M., March 28. Fee for filing in this case will be 50c.

Last day for candidates to withdraw petitions April 2 at 12 Noon.

This is also last day to file objections to petitions for nomination.

April 16, is last day for voters not enrolled to register and last day for voters who have removed to another district to file removal notices with Registration Commission in order to vote at primary.

May 23 is the first day after the primary upon which additional registration of voters may be accepted.

More Sh-h-h . . .

Latest use of the Narberth Station is as a roller skating rink. The lad who skated around one day, defied Station Master Burgstresser to throw him off the railroad property, and had a good time until Sergeant Charley Girvin became an invited witness.

A Shurley Roader came home at 1:30 one morning, from a banquet, of course, and commented to your shoosher on our suburb's nocturnal serenity. True, there are not many early birds—or late, depending on your birdseye view. But drive along our quiet roads at 1.30 A. M. any Sunday, and you'll notice plenty of homes, here and hereby, that are lit up . . . well, lighted up, anyway.

A Windsor Avenuer, accosted by city police for failing to stop completely at stop signs, takes the wind out of their sails by claiming their eyesight is poor, and offering to take them to his oculist for a test. Care to try it some time?

After the formal opening the girls studied First Aid. Then some played Red Rover while others passed tests.

Main Line Woman To Head Day Camp

Mrs. Herbert H. Wallower Named Chairman of Scout Committee

Mrs. Herbert H. Wallower, of Haverford, has been appointed chairman of the Day Camp Committee of the Philadelphia Girl Scouts. Her position as Day Camp chairman of the Main Line Committee, District 8, has been given to Mrs. Samuel P. Huhn, Jr., of Colonial Village, who was registrar at the Day Camp last summer. Mrs. Huhn will retain her present position as treasurer of the Main Line Committee until election of officers in April.

Mrs. Wallower will continue as Leader of Ardmore Troop 93, which position she has held for the past three years. Previous to coming east in 1934, Mrs. Wallower was connected with Girl Scout organizations in Denver and Leadville, Colorado.

Individuals interested in Girl Scouting, troops and districts are asked to contribute money for at least one tree in the avenue of memorial oaks which the Girl Scouts hope to plant at Indian Run, their camp beyond Downingtown, on April 2. The avenue will be from the Wee Stone Manor to the swimming pool. Cost of each tree is $3 and all money is to be sent to Mrs. W. Hersey Thomas, 145 Gorgas lane, Mt. Airy, Philadelphia. A grove of memorial hemlocks was planted several years ago.

The twenty-two members of Merion Troop 230 carved book shelves and curtain tie backs, with jig saws, Monday afternoon at their meeting in the scout house. Troop 230 is now composed of girls between ten and twelve, as the seventh grade patrol is joining Merion Troop 18, the high school group which meets Tuesday afternoons. Troop 18 is planning a trip to Franklin Museum, February 26. Mrs. Homer Eachus is leader of both troops.

Read the ads too. Lots of news in them.
